

PUBLIC MEETING

WITH CHIEF
DEL RILEY

DECOLONIZATION, "MODERATE LIVELIHOOD" AND CANNABIS AS AN ABORIGINAL RIGHT.

Chief Del Riley is a Hereditary Crane Clan Chief of the Chippewa Nation, the last President of the National Indian Brotherhood, a past President of the Union of Ontario Indians, and a past chairman of the World Council of Indigenous Peoples. Among Chief Riley's many contributions, he helped to author and negotiate Sections 25 and 35 of the Canadian Constitution as the President of the National Indian Brotherhood. Section 35 is credited with winning over 270 Aboriginal and Treaty rights court cases and was recently used as a defense to have charges dismissed in a Constitutional Challenge against newly imposed Canadian Cannabis laws. Chief Riley will make a presentation and answer questions from the audience.
